Dear Dr. Joffe:

I am writing in the hopes that you will join us for a conference on Europe in the 1980s to be held at the State Department on April 5-6th. If your calendar permits, we would like to invite you to speak on the subject of West European perceptions of the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe. This topic will be dealt with during the late morning of April 5th (see enclosure) and will also encompass the subject of East-West trade. Other panelists include Bill Griffith, Paul Marer, Marshall Goldman and Bill Diebold.

My associate, [] will be in touch with you in the next few days in order to determine whether you can participate. I hope you will be able to join us.

Sincerely,

[]
Milton Kovner
